

Latest info on COVID-19 (November 2020)

1. COVID-19 has spread globally and led to travel restrictions worldwide – including in Taiwan where the following currently apply:
 - From June 29, 2020, foreign nationals who wish to travel to Taiwan for reasons other than tourism and regular social visits may apply for a special entry permit with a Taiwanese overseas mission by submitting relevant documents and forms.
 - Starting December 1, 2020, all incoming foreign nationals must present an English-language certificate of a negative COVID-19 test taken within 3 days of boarding the flight to Taiwan, unless they are in an emergency situation (see definition), arrive from a country where self-paid COVID-19 tests are not available, or are part of programs managed by relevant ministries and agencies and approved by the CECC (see more).
 - All incoming travellers must undergo a 14-day quarantine period, either at home or at a designated quarantine hotel, upon entering Taiwan.
2. Taiwan's Centres for Disease Control (CDC) has adopted a series of measures to prevent the spread of the pandemic in Taiwan. For a full overview of the measures currently being implemented, visit the CDC's website: www.cdc.tw/En
3. Belgium is currently advising against all non-essential trips abroad. Should you need to travel, please contact your airline company or travel agency to check about the likely (re)scheduling of your flight.
4. For information on the situation in Belgium and the measures taken by the Belgian authorities (including travelling to Belgium), please refer to the following website: <https://www.info-coronavirus.be/en/>

5. All travelers arriving to Belgium are also required to fill in the Passenger Locator Form 48 hours before boarding their arrival to Belgium; this includes a self-assessment questionnaire. Once in Belgium, you will receive further instructions about testing and quarantine by text based on the data you have provided.
6. Kindly note that the Belgian Office, Taipei only works through online scheduling. Make an appointment online via our platform e-Appointment.
7. Last but not least, if you are currently in Taiwan but not registered at the Belgian Office, please send us an email at taipei@diplobel.fed.be with your latest contact details and/or register your stay on the platform <https://travellersonline.diplomatie.be/>
